

Cathy Rogers, ND graduated from National College of Naturopathic Medicine in 1976. While serving as Dean of Admissions and as Academic Dean at Bastyr University, she shepherded the school through its accreditation with XXX. She was a founding director and second president of the American Association of Naturopathic Physicians and initiated/ a contrast hydrotherapy clinic near Seattle for 14 years. Her naturopathic practice and teaching throughout 49 years has focused on using the therapeutic relationship in a body-based psychotherapeutic approach, to engage clients' self-healing resources.

Letitia Dick-Kronenberg, ND, FNMI graduated from the National College of Naturopathic Medicine in 1990. After a 3-year residency with her father, Harold Dick, ND, she became the clinic director of the oldest classical Naturopathic clinic in the United States, Windrose Naturopathic Clinic, now over 65 years in business. She is author of The Ultimate Text in Constitutional Hydrotherapy and an international speaker and instructor in naturopathic medicine.

Roger Newman Turner, ND, DO, BAc has been a practitioner of naturopathy, osteopathy and acupuncture in England for more than 40 years. He continues to lecture in these fields internationally, and has authored several books, including Naturopathic Medicine: Treating the whole person and Against the Grain: the life of Frank Newman Turner.
